

My Safety Net

There might be people in your life who help you through difficult times and can act as a safety net when you are struggling.

Sometimes seeking help from these people or talking to them can really help.

Some people you might consider putting in your safety net might be family, friends, teachers, healthcare professionals etc. Start with those closest to you.

Who would you place inside your safety net?

